

Good Shepherd, invaded his home yesterday, and darned his socks and mended his shirts.

The widows of the firemen who lost their lives in the stock yards fire Dec. 22, 1910, were given their share of the $211,000 relief fund yesterday.

Chicago physicians associated with city health department as medical inspectors talk of going on strike if they are not given higher wages and shorter hours.

Albert Leon, Rudolph Swanson and Fred Marneck indicted by federal grand jury yesterday for counterfeiting.

J. H. Steele and Vincent Pasago scalded, probably fatally, by explosion due to high steam pressure in engine room of Chicago Malleable Casting Co., West Pullman.

Knives, scissors and wire found in cells of Choo Foo Horn and Charlie Moy, convicted murderers, in the county jail. Officials claim escape plot.

Marshall Thomas, jr., 2, 3918 S. State street, ate lye. Died at home.

Mary Lewis, West Hammond, has written authorities asking if it is against the law for girls earning $6 a week to wear silk stockings. Letter concludes: "All our bunch wear them."

Eggs, 48 cents; butter 43 cents; poultry going up, and the packers trying to get a 'psychic' jury.

"Indicts Would Be Coercers."
—Head in Daily News.

Owing to the fact that yellow-haired stenographer on floor above borrowed our dictionary yesterday and forgot to return it, we cannot tell our readers what this means.

If we ever get the dictionary back we'll try.

We are going to have a psychological jury in packers case.

Yes, Johnny, this is a Very advanced age.

"The college man is the pick of our manhood."—Dr. Harry Pratt Judson. But sometimes there's some darn poor picking done.

Willie Hearst's evening spasm has story taken from Marshall Field's weekly review of dry goods trade.

Wonder why?

Not wishing to talk scandal, we suspicion that Willie is in somewhat the same class as that Minnesotan "Christian Indian", who picked up a few of John D. Robbafeller's tricks—and is now in jail for it.

What is a suspicious character?

Answer: A venieman in the packer's case.

What is a hypothetical question?

Answer: One the lawyer who puts it doesn't understand, and hopes to heaven the one to whom it is put, wont understand.

Police Inspector Wheeler says his men are soldiers. Oh, is that why they do so much soldiering?

Always confess when you are proven guilty. Thus you will secure clemency for "the great expense saved the state."

—o—o—o—

Ants carry loads from 40 to 50 times their own weight.